Responsibility Checklist

- Is my homework written in my planner and completed each day?
- Do I complete my chores/tasks when asked and try my best?
- Do I get to class on time each period?
- Do I help those in need?
- Do I stand up for what's right?

Responsibility

- Doing what is expected.
- Choose between right and wrong.
- Be accountable.

Why is Responsibility Important?

Responsibility is important because actions have consequences.

value words of the Month:

Responsibility & Accountability

Responsibility means Meeting and exceeding expectations.

Accountability means taking ownership of the consequences of your actions.

When you are responsible and accountable, people can trust you to do what you say you'll do. You get positive results and avoid negative consequences

Helps people live together safely and with cooperation

New Jersey Student Learning Assessment

In the coming weeks, we will be preparing for the NJLSA in all grades. In Humanities scholars are participating in a NJSLA Bootcamp where scholars have been practicing key skills that will help them show what they know on the test. In Math scholars will be practicing targeted strategies that will help them unpack unfamiliar concepts when they see them on the test and in the future. If you would like to practice for the test at home, here are some practice tests that will you can use to help prepare. Reach out to your Humanities, Math and Science (8th grade only) teachers for help!

Monday, May 8
ELA Unit 1

Tuesday, May 9
ELA Unit 2

Wednesday, May 10
Math Unit 1

Thursday, May 11

Test Taking Tips

- Get plenty of sleep and eat breakfast
- Be prepared with pencils and erasers
- Take a deep breath and relax
- Read the questions carefully
- Look at all of the choices before you answer
- Eliminate the answers you know are wrong
- Show work on paper and check your work when you are done
- Pace yourself and answer every question
- Fill in multiple-choice bubbles fully and completely
- And think positively and try your best
